

Registration is open for the 2019 UCT/GSB Hospitality Leadership Short Course

The UCT Graduate School of Business is excited to announce the 3rd intake for the Hospitality Leadership short course, focused on developing a pool of future talent for the industry.

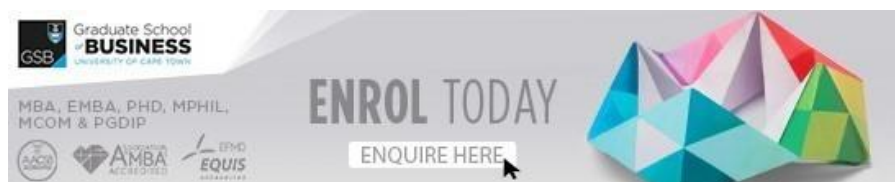

The GSB's Hospitality Leadership course is the only one of its kind in South Africa that focuses on the leadership and strategic skills needed to thrive in this fast-paced industry. The course is interactive and practice-driven and uses a case-study approach that delivers superior market insight along with practical tools, business acumen and leadership capability to give delegates and their organisations a competitive advantage. This unique course features input from academics, hospitality practitioners and South African policy makers. It also offers an unrivalled opportunity to engage, network with and learn from like-minded professionals and leading personalities in the industry.

We encourage you to invest in our future leaders and make use of this opportunity to upskill our industry by offering it to your executive management staff and are calling on all Senior- to Executive Management in the hospitality industry across Hotels, Small Accommodation, and Restaurants to apply for the course.

It is a one-week course from 19-27 July 2019 at a cost of only R 30, 000.00 pp.
